Cookies

A cookie is a small text file that is sent with the pages of a website and stored by the browser on your computer, tablet or mobile phone. We use cookies to offer you more service when visiting our website, which makes it easier to use. For example, cookies ensure that you can stay logged in on a website or that your preferences are remembered. We can see through cookies how often our websites - and which pages - are viewed by visitors.

To place certain cookies, you must first give permission before these cookies may be used. This permission is not necessary if and to the extent that it concerns technically necessary (functional) and analytical cookies, in the sense of the applicable legislation, such as Article 11.7a paragraph 3 of the Telecommunications Act and the ePrivacy Regulation.

You can always withdraw your consent to cookies by changing your internet settings. More information about switching on and off and removing cookies can be found in the Help function of your browser.

Provision of personal data to third parties

Without your consent, the Association will only provide your personal data to third parties if this is necessary for the performance of the Agreement that the Association has with you, unless the Association is legally obliged to provide your personal details to these third parties. In the table at the beginning of the privacy statement you will find an overview of the situations in which personal data are provided to third parties.

Access, correction and deletion of personal data

You have the right to request the Association to inspect your personal data (unless the Association is not obliged to provide this inspection on the grounds of the General Data Protection Regulation) and to have your data supplemented, removed or protected. You need to identify yourself with such a request. If you wish your data to be deleted, the Association will pass this removal on to all other organizations that have received the relevant data from the Association.

Security of personal data

The Association takes appropriate measures to protect your personal data against loss, unauthorized access, publication and unlawful processing. In this way we ensure that only the necessary persons have access to your data, that access to the personal data is protected and that our security measures are checked regularly.

Minors

If you wish to register as a minor, you must provide explicit permission from your parent or guardian.

Links to other websites

The website may contain links to other websites. This Privacy Statement only applies to the websites of the Association. Other websites can use their own privacy policy. The Association recommends that you always consult the relevant privacy statement of those websites for the use of other websites.

Change of privacy policy

The Association adjusts its privacy policy from time to time to keep it up to date. The most recent version of our Privacy Statement will always be included on the websites. The Association therefore advises you to regularly consult the Privacy Statement. In case of significant changes, the Association will do everything to inform you by e-mail and via the websites.

Contact details

If you have questions about the processing of your personal data or wish to request the Association to inspect, correct and / or delete your personal data, you can contact us via the contact details below:

Complaint about the processing of your Personal Data

Of course we also gladly help you further if you have a complaint about the processing of your personal data. On the basis of the AVG you also have the right to file a complaint with the Dutch Data Protection Authority about our processing of your personal data. You can contact the Dutch Data Protection Authority for this.
